Shri N.K. Malviya, counsel for the petitioner.

State by Shri Sanjay S. Agrawal, Govt. Advocate on advance copy.

Application for urgent hearing is allowed.

Heard.

Learned counsel submits that the petitioner is facing departmental enquiry and the grievance is that he is not being supplied copies of the statements of witnesses and other documents. He further submits that for the present the petitioner may be given an opportunity of filing the detailed representation afresh before the competent authority of the respondents, which shall be considered on its own merits in accordance with law.

Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation afresh raising his grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of the petition and this order, within 15 days and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within two months from the date of receipt of the representation. It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the petitioner may avail the remedy available under the law.

With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of.

C.C. as per rules.
